

THE PROSP(A)RITY PROJECT
Pursuing prosp(a)rity by defeating disparity.

Marquise Vilsaint
Programming Lead

Marquise Vilsaint is an experienced Project Manager and Adjunct Instructor with a passion for uplifting women of color in all capacities (career, financial literacy, personal empowerment). As a first generation Haitian American, education was the emphasis in her upbringing. She grew up with her parents always stating, “people can take anything from you, but not your mind”. This principle has allowed her to graduate with a Bachelor of Science from Nova Southeastern University and a Masters in Business Administration from Florida Atlantic University. Although morals and lessons were plentiful, there were limitations to finances. Therefore, student loans were a necessary need to pursue her education journey.

Marquise learned about The Prosp(a)rity Project and its mission and instantly knew it aligned with her goals to uplift and leave a mark in supporting those in need.
